What Is the Costco Travel Phone Number?

The primary Costco Travel customer service and reservations phone number commonly listed for members in the United States is:

When You Should Call Costco Travel

You can use the Costco Travel phone number whenever you need human help with your trip instead of managing everything online. Common reasons to call include:

- Booking a new vacation package, cruise, hotel, or rental car.
- Making changes to dates, destinations, or traveler information.
- Asking about payments, billing problems, or using a different card for final payment.
- Confirming what is included in a package (resort fees, transfers, taxes).

- Getting help when a flight is delayed, canceled, or rescheduled.
- Clarifying membership requirements or eligibility for certain offers.

If your plans are simple and you are comfortable online, you can often book through CostcoTravel.com without calling, but more complex itineraries are usually easier to handle with an agent on the phone.

What Costco Travel Can Help You With by Phone

Costco Travel agents can typically assist with most stages of your trip, from planning to post-travel questions. When you call, you can usually get help with:

- Vacation packages: Bundled deals that include flights, hotels or resorts, transfers, and sometimes extras like resort credits.
- Cruises: New cruise bookings, cabin upgrades, dining times, and answering questions about onboard credits.
- Hotels and resorts: Room categories, bed types, special requests, and confirming inclusions like breakfast or parking.
- Car rentals: Changing pickup and drop-off times, vehicle categories, and adding drivers.
- Existing reservations: Name corrections, date changes, cancellations according to each supplier's rules.
- Travel documentation questions: What you need for international travel (passports, basic visa questions, name matching).

Agents can also direct you to the right supplier (airline, cruise line, hotel) if a change must be handled directly with them per their policies.

Tips to Prepare Before Calling the Costco Travel Phone Number

Being prepared before dialing 1-866-921-7925 can reduce your hold time and make your call smoother. Have the following information ready:

- Your Costco membership number.
- The full name on your membership and on the reservation.

- Your travel dates and destination.
- Reservation or confirmation number (if you already booked).
- Traveler details: legal names, dates of birth, special needs or requests.
- A clear idea of what you want to change or ask.

For example, if you want to change your hotel dates, make sure you know your new preferred dates and whether your flights also need to change before you call.

Best Times and Ways to Contact Costco Travel

Costco Travel operates call centers with set service windows that may vary by season and demand, but they generally cover standard business hours on weekdays and reduced hours on weekends in Pacific Time. To improve your chances of a shorter wait:

- Call earlier in the day, especially for complex changes.
- Avoid peak times like Monday mornings and late afternoons before major holidays.
- If your trip is within 24–48 hours, call as soon as you know about a problem so agents have time to work with airlines or other suppliers.

In addition to the phone, you can also use online self-service options on CostcoTravel.com, such as accessing itinerary details, printing documents, or reviewing FAQs. These can sometimes solve simple issues without a call.

Example: When to Call vs. Use the Website

Imagine you booked a week-long resort stay in Hawaii with flights through Costco Travel and your airline suddenly changes your flight time by several hours. In this case, calling the Costco Travel phone number is usually better than trying to fix things on your own because:

- An agent can see your entire package, not just the flight.
- They can check if shifting flights affects your hotel dates, airport transfers, or car rental.
- They can explain any change fees or fare differences before you commit.

On the other hand, if you simply need to reprint your itinerary or check payment due dates, logging into your Costco Travel account online is usually faster than waiting on hold.
